*Remember me when I am gone away, Yet if you should forget me for a while Gone far away into the silent land; And afterwards remember, do not grieve:
When you can no more hold me by the hand, For if the darkness and corruption leave
Nor I half turn to go yet turning stay. A vestige of the thoughts that once I had,
Remember me when no more day by day Better by far you should forget and smile
You tell me of our future that you plann'd: Than that you should remember and be sad.
Only remember me; you understand
It will be late to counsel then or pray.*
